Healing Scripture

Matthew 7:9-11

What man is there among you who, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent? If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!

1 John 5:14, 15

And this is the confidence that we have in Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He heareth us. And if we know that He hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of Him.

Do you have confidence in God and His word? Is your faith such that you believe God honors His word? When we pray and ask God for something we must have faith our prayers are heard and will be answered. God is a good God and He will do what His word says. Baby Christians often have great faith and see their prayers answered quickly. As we mature God expects each believer to grow in His wisdom and knowledge through the word. Then when we pray we know what God's will is and have confidence that our prayers will be answered. Sometimes we don't see our prayers answered and come to the conclusion that God did not want to answer our prayer. Possibly we didn't believe what we were praying would happen, or we had no idea of what God's will on the subject was. Lack of knowledge can be deadly in some situations. Most Christians never doubt that it is God's will for someone to be saved. We have great faith and patience for family members and the unsaved to know Jesus as Lord and Savior. But when it comes to healing it doesn't seem to be so clear for many. If we pray and don't see the manifestation right away we think God doesn't want us healed, or the doctor is able to control the disease with medication and we live with our illness. Such reasoning goes against God's word. In Psalm 103:3 it is written Who forgives all your iniquities, who heals all your diseases. When God uses the word all, that exactly what He means. Jesus never refused to heal anyone, Jesus never told anyone to just live with it, Jesus always had compassion for the sick and healed them all. Sometimes we may have to go through what is attacking our body but the end result and goal should be a desire to be healed. If the Bible says by His stripes you were healed, then you ARE healed and you must take a stand in your heart, I AM healed because your confidence is in God and His Word. When we have the victory the end result will bless us and glorify God.
