Healing Scripture

1 John 5:14, 15

And this is the confidence that we have in Him, that, if we ask any thing according to His will, He heareth us; And if we know that He hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of Him.

Genesis 20:11, 14

11. And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake. 14. For the Lord had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

Abraham had lied to king Abimelech concerning Sarah his wife because he was knew that there was no fear of God in this nation. For a Christian the fear of God is imperative because it shows an awareness of who God is. We are not to fear God as someone who will harm or hurt us but we should recognize that God is worthy to be honored, revered and held in high esteem. Unfortunately, it is far too easy to take God for granted and not give God glory. We know that the world around us does not fear God and we should be careful of where we go and who we choose as friends. Sometimes it may appear that there are few people in the workplace, school, or neighborhood that share the same values and love of God as we do. God had to intervene supernaturally to keep Abimelech from knowing Sarah as a wife and also closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech. Abraham had faith and was righteous before God but he did not have the knowledge we have today. We are to be wise as a serpent and gentle as a dove. God has given us the Holy Spirit, His word, and the name of Jesus for every circumstance we face in life. If we fear God and know God through His word, we do what pleases Him. If you are walking with God you will be in agreement with God and that closes the door to Satan and His fiery darts. Abraham was not judged by God for lying but we are accountable to God for what we say and do. It is important that we ask the question, is the fear of God in this place when we chose to go somewhere. If we are filled with the word of God many of the places that draw the world will no longer appeal to you. The books you used to read will no longer interest you, the television shows and movies you watched will prick your spirit. That is the Holy Spirit (who is holy) guiding you that away from the world and toward to the kingdom of God. You are chosen and loved by God, fear Him and live your life in a way that pleases and honors God. Judy Onofri
