Healing Scripture

Romans 4:19-21

And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead..., neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb: He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; and being fully persuaded that what He had promised, He was able to also to perform.

1 Corinthians 7:14, 15

For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.

God's wisdom is everywhere in His word, teaching us and admonishing us to walk in His will and His ways. One of those guidelines is marriage. For a believer there should be no other choice but to fellowship and marry another believer. Some people marry before they are saved, and some believers fall in love and think for sure the person will change because love is blind. God is gracious and has every situation covered in His word. Marriage was instituted by God between a man and a woman. If we want God's best we must follow His guidelines because God knows the sorrow, misery, and divorce that often follow wrong decisions in marriage. If you are married to an unbeliever you become the light of God to that person in your actions, your conversation, your love and your purity. Only God can draw a person into His kingdom, but seeing the love of God in you and prayer can turn a person to Christ. God hates divorce, yet God understands that a believer may have a spouse that chooses to walk away from the marriage. God graciously delivers us from bondage of that spouse and you may go in peace. To those who have not married yet, seek God's wisdom, He has the right person for you if you will only wait upon the Lord. We often don't want to do that, waiting is no fun. But mistakes are painful, costly, and children brought up in a broken household often are emotionally scarred. God told Israel in Malachi 2:15 that His purpose for marriage was to seek a godly seed. The seed is your children, they are the heritage of the Lord. If we would wait and take time, possibly years, to get to know the person we think should be our mate, far fewer divorces would happen in the church. God loves you and wants only the best, He sees the beginning and the end, let the Holy Spirit guide you in your decision. Serve the Lord with all your heart and trust God for the right time.
