1 Kings 11:4

For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

We tend to think it is impossible to have a perfect heart before the Lord. On our own it is impossible, but when we trust God, lean not on our own understanding, and acknowledge Him in all our ways we can grow and mature to a level that is perfect before our God. God is not looking for the smartest, the richest, the best looking, or the most talented. God wants those who are madly in love with Him and are willing to serve Him with all their heart. If you study David you will see that his relationship with God was perfect. He was a servant who loved and adored his Master. David leaned on and trusted God waiting patiently for God to fulfill all that He had spoken to David. David honored God and was not willing to offer a sacrifice to God that did not cost him something, can we say the same thing? In the world we live in it is far too easy to trust in our own abilities and not give God the glory for all He has done and all He is doing. Solomon had what the world covets riches, honor, fame, possessions, and wisdom and yet that did not prevent him from turning away from God. It can happen that those who have all they need do not know they are slowly slipping away from God because they believe their own hands provided all they have. The truth is everything you have or are able to do is God's grace upon you. Going to church can become a ritual, and we become a Christian in name only because our beliefs have been mingled with the words of social media. What we believed to be wrong at one time by the moral law of the Bible has now become a gray area. We live in dangerous times especially if we do not have the Bible as the truth in our life. Just as the first church in Acts was persecuted for their total adherence to the gospel the latter church will be required the same. Solomon had the kingdom torn from his hands for disobeying God's word and intermarrying with those outside the faith. Why was God so strict? God knows that the people in our life and their beliefs will have a profound effect on what we believe. Those wives caused Solomon to turn from the one true God and worship other gods. His heart was no longer perfect as his father David's was. Study the Bible and cling to Jesus, have a desire to have a perfect heart before God. That means you will grow and mature as a Christian. Every Christian will be required to stand for God at some time in this world and not compromise His Word. Now is the time to
