Healing Scripture

Psalm 107:1-2

Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever. Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy.

Matthew 1:21

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call His name JESUS; for He shall save His people from their sins.

At this time of the year many children are beside themselves with excitement knowing that on Christmas there will be presents to enjoy. For Christians there is nothing in this world that compares to the gift God gave through the incarnation of man and God in the form of a baby named Jesus. Many people have manger scenes depicting the figures of Mary, Joseph and the baby Jesus. But what the manger truly represents is not understood and valued by all. God created man for His pleasure. When man doubted God's word and treason took place in the Garden of Eden, God had a plan. Sin could not be ignored or paid for by man's goodness, only God could fulfill the requirement for the penalty of sin. God's plan was Emmanuel, God with us. Man is unique and wonderfully made, we are precious to God and He was willing to become a sacrifice to save us, to pay for our sins. It is critical we understand, appreciate, and cherish what God did for us. It is easy to get caught up in customs and traditions and not value what Christmas is all about. Many people will attend church at Christmas that do not regularly come. Yet we all must examine ourselves and consider whether the baby that was born in Bethlehem, and who died on the cross, was ever birthed in our heart. You can be a faithful member of a church and still not have a personal relationship with God through His Son, Jesus Christ. If you feel stressed, worried, or overwhelmed in life it's time to let Jesus sit on the throne in your heart and put your whole life into God's hands. Living your life the way you want to will never produce what you were created for. Trusting, leaning on, and relying on God is the safest and most wonderful place to be in this life. God will let you live your life the way you want to, but the perfect love, security, and safety that is so precious will only be found in the arms of Jesus. The presents, the parties, and the festivities will be over shortly, but Jesus is the gift that lasts from this life into eternity. Judy Onofri
