Healing Scripture

Psalm 107:1, 2

Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy.

Proverbs 4:10

Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of your life shall be many.

We often think we have no control over the length of our life. That is because we look in the natural, yet spiritually we have great influence over the number of our days according to God's Word. All the promises of God are yes and amen. Therefore, we need to know God's promises and walk in the light of them. What we believe and confess over our life by faith does makes a difference. Proverbs 4:10 says if we receive God's sayings the years of your life will be many. To receive the Word means to believe the word. The Bible must be made personal by knowing God through His Word, then as we receive it we also act upon what we believe with expectation. Too often we are ignorant of God's promises, or we may not receive a teaching because it does not line up with our experience, philosophy, or personal knowledge. No man has all the answers, but God does, and will give us what we need if we trust Him and stay in communion with Him through the Holy Spirit. We press on by growing and learning the Word until the day we leave this earth. If something doesn't seem right or you don't understand a teaching, go to God and ask for His wisdom. You will probably find what God teaches in His word is opposite from what you have believed in the world. If you desire long life study verses that give this promise, then trust God for the result. God knows when the best time is for you to leave, but He also allows you to stand on His word in faith, for He watches over His word to perform it. If you are working for the Lord and desire to continue that work until the end of your life, know that God wants to use you more than you desire to be used. There are other scriptures that promise long life. Psalm 91:16 With long life I will satisfy him, and show him My salvation. Proverbs 3:1,2 My son do not forget My law, but let your heart keep My commands; for length of days and long life and peace they will add to you. Proverbs 9:10, 11 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. For by me your days will be multiplied, and years of life will be added to you. Ephesians 6:1, 2 Children, obey your father and mother, which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth.
