Healing Scripture

Exodus 23:25
And you shall serve the LORD your God, and He shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee.

1 Timothy 2:4

Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

Thanksgiving is a national holiday. A day of remembrance of our forefathers who came to this country for religious freedom. America has been the cradle of the gospel of Jesus Christ for hundreds of years. We have sent missionaries, medical supplies, food, clothing and money all over the world. Much has been done for humanitarian reasons but in America there is a true church, the body of Christ, that has a heart like God, willing none should perish but all should come to repentance (2 Peter 3:9). God's hand has been on this nation from the beginning to fulfill His purpose of reaching the lost. If you are saved you have much to be thankful for. For the Christian there is no end to life. We may give up this body one day but our hope is in the cross where man received the gift of eternal life through God by His Son. We want to be sure that God is at the center of our thankfulness. It is only by Him we live and move and have our being. God's love, His goodness, and grace covers us in everything we do. Look back over this year at all you were able to do and thank God you were able to do it. Do you have a job, do you have a place to live, do you have food to eat? If the answer is yes than thank God. If you had a difficult year and lost a loved one, went through sickness, lost your job, family breakups, or whatever hardships came against you, find joy in the fact you're still here and God was with you every step of the way. God is good, the world is not. Until the day we go to be with Jesus we will find much to complain about in this world. But if you have the knowledge of the Truth you can find joy even in the midst of suffering. Don't let Thanksgiving just be a day of food, family, and friends (that's what the world does) make it a a day of worship in your heart and praise in your mouth to a loving Lord and Savior who redeemed you out of the kingdom of darkness. Now you are a creature of the Light, know that your Father loves you as His child and wants to help you every step of the way in a fallen world, put your trust in Him. Judy
