Healing Scripture

1 Peter 2:24

Who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness-by whose stripes you were healed.

Galatians 3:2, 3

This only I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being made perfect by the flesh?

Today we celebrate the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Without the resurrection there is no hope for anyone because we would still be in our sins. Jesus told His disciples it is far better for you if I go away to My Father that the promise might come, that promise was the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. It is through the Holy Spirit that salvation comes to the believer opening his heart and mind, converting the sinner into a new creation, one that believes Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. Up until Christ's resurrection the covenant by God with man had been the Law, obey it and you would be righteous before God. Man unfortunately had a hard time following the law, he followed fleshly desires like the world that was outside the covenant of God. So a new and better covenant was put into place by Jesus' death, burial and resurrection. Now man could be righteous by putting his faith in what Jesus did on the cross and not his own works. Paul wrote to the Galatians severely correcting them, and encouraging them by saying, the just shall live by faith. God knew man needed even more than the new birth to fulfill His plan, man needed the baptism of the Holy Spirit which was poured out after Jesus ascended into heaven on the Day of Pentecost. Christians come to the altar by faith, believing in Jesus, but often fall into works of the flesh thinking good works make them right before God. God's kingdom is different from the world, Paul's warning to the Galatians is for all Christians everywhere. If you have accepted Christ by faith then you must continue by faith listening, learning, and studying the word of God. That includes seeking the baptism of the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in tongues. God gives gifts to the sons of men and those gifts are worth more than all the kingdoms of this world, ask God to open your eyes to what is yours. Why does God want us to have the Holy Spirit? He knows you have an enemy, the devil, who is seeking whom he may devour. God loves you and has provided all you need in this life for those who choose to believe and receive. God will not alter His word so it is up to each individual to listen and obey, otherwise you may find yourself on the outside with no oil in your lamp to meet the bridegroom when He arrives. Jesus is coming soon, are you living by what you think is right, or by faith in Jesus, and the word of God? Judy Onofri
