Healing Scripture

Daniel 10:11, 12 AMP

And the angel said to me, O Daniel, you greatly beloved man, understand the words that I speak to you and stand upright, for to you I am now sent.

And while he was saying this word to me, I stood up trembling. Then he said to me, Fear not, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your mind and heart to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come as a consequence of your words.

Genesis 47:9

And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are one hundred and thirty year; few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

When Jacob was presented before Pharaoh he refers to his life as a pilgrimage, few in days and evil. Like his fathers before him, Jacob's called no country his own for his citizenship was in heaven. It is a wise word to every believer not to be so comfortable in this world we are not looking to things above. John wrote in 1 John 2:15 Love not this world neither the things that are in the world. If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. This can be a difficult truth when we live in a materialistic, hedonistic society. All day long we are bombarded with messages of what the world calls important, yet they are only things that satisfy the flesh. News is often sensationalism directed at our emotions which make us upset and angry, or fearful. Paul tells us in Colossians 3:2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. Why is it so important to have a real understanding of what the future holds for every believer? God knows we are easily ensnared by the things of this world and the cares of this life. If Satan is able to get our attention focused on me, myself and I, then we aren't looking to God as our source, or seeking His will is for our life. There are some people who know what God has called them to do but make other things a priority. Then one day they look back and consider what they spent their time, money, energy, and thoughts on, was it what God called them to do? God's word is quite clear in Isaiah 43:7 saying, Even every one that is called by My name; for I have created him for My glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him. You exist by God for God to bring Him glory. It is a wonderful thing to know why you were created. The natural human man enters this world through earthy parents but the spiritual man is created for God. Give God the glory each day that you live knowing you have a purpose and calling on your life. Pray for doors to open that you might shine the light of Jesus Christ into someone else's life. When you know you are passing through this world it changes your whole perspective. It's hard for Satan and the evil of this world to get you down because you know this life is temporary. Your Lord and Savior has gone to prepare a place for you and where He is there will you be also. Amen Judy Onofri
