Healing Scripture

Psalm 91:9-11

Because thou hast made the LORD which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For He shall give His angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways...

Micah 6:7,8

Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sins of my soul? He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

Many people have made promises and offered sacrifices to God trying to deal their way out of a bad situation. We often forget that everything we have that is good came from God. Even more important there is nothing we can offer God for the payment of our sins. It is written in Isaiah 64:6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags. In the Old Testament offerings were physical and required by God. Under the New Testament, or new covenant, our sins have been paid for by the blood of Jesus. God is looking for a sacrifice of praise from our lips. Our praise to God is recognition of the amazing gift God gave us through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. If we do not praise God or worship Him, it is a sign the flesh is controlling us, or that we have a lack of knowledge of God through His word, or possibly we have not been born again from above. God's word and God are one. In God's word we find truth and life. In the Word we come to know God. In the word we have all the promises and answers to life's problems. Israel did not have the word except for the priests and the scribes who read it before the people. There are Christians today that expect to get all they need on a Sunday morning through the sermon that is preached. That is not enough, we are told in the Bible to meditate on the word day and night (Joshua 1:8, Psalms 1:2) That means the word of God should be of highest priority in our life. It becomes impossible to fulfill God's words spoken through Micah if the word is not in us. That is, to do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with thy God. Judy Onofri
