Healing Scripture

1 John 5:14-15

And this is the confidence that we have in Him, that, if we ask any thing according to His will, He heareth us: And if we know that He hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desire of Him.

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

The Lord Jesus the same night in which He was betrayed took bread: And when He had given thanks, He brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of Me. After the same manner also He took the cup, when he had supped, saying, 'This cup is the New Testament in My blood; this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till He come.

For a Christian our faith stems from what was done by the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus. Jesus knew why He had come and what the eternal results would be for man with His death on the cross and resurrection. Jesus' flesh wanted to resist what was to take place, but His Spirit and soul were full of the love and obedience to the Father, so He willingly suffered a brutal death. We are blessed to have the word of God to read and know the words Jesus spoke before He was arrested. He loved His disciples and knew they were going to go through difficult times when He was separated from them. Throughout the Bible God gave physical examples of spiritual principles. The Lord's Supper is certainly one of the most important. To some it is just a ritual or tradition, to others it is a profound picture of what Jesus did for us. Our human nature and the busyness of life can cause us to forget what was bought and paid for at the cross. We go through the cares of life and forget that we are sons and daughters of the most high God. We forget that we are only traveling through this world, and that our real life will begin when we are absent from the body and present with the Lord. To have this reminder of the Lord's Supper is needful so that we don't forget the price that was paid for our sins and for the gift of eternal life. Don't let the physical example of bread and wine be quickly forgotten, meditate on these scriptures and write them on the tablet of your heart. His body was broken for YOU, His blood was shed for YOU. Our earthly body will die one day if the Lord tarries, but we have this promise of the life to come. Never take it for granted, hold your salvation dear to your heart, and thank God every day for all Christ has done for you! Judy Onofri
