2 Timothy 2:3, 4

Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangles himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please Him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

From prison knowing he would shortly be leaving this world, Paul encourages Timothy, a young pastor, with godly wisdom. Our life blessed through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ might be viewed as a war zone in some ways. Christians know the end result of their faith in Jesus Christ thus we see life differently than the world does. We are not of this world we have a different commander and chief. We are to report to God daily for wisdom and guidance before going about our daily tasks. This is done through prayer, fellowship, and studying our instruction manual, the Bible. Life may appear to be routine but the choices we make and the life we live are critical. The devil wants to destroy us and daily sets snares to draw us away from God. Without the wisdom of the Word and the guidance of the Holy Spirit we can get entangled in the affairs of this life and lose our way. God called you and you responded to His call. When that happened God should become your first priority. As a good soldier of God it is your job to please God and that will only happen if you stay in close contact and obey His Word. There is much in this world that draws our attention away from living for God. Think about what takes your time, energy, money and thoughts. Is it family, job, money, pleasure, or do you crave honor, fame, and power? We are told to examine ourselves so that we would not be judged. Then we must obey God's word and avoid being entangled with the affairs of this life. Because the spirit man lives in a carnal body we must step back and carefully examine what we do with our life. We want to enjoy what God has blessed us with but we also don't want our life to interfere with God's will. Being steadfast, immovable as a good soldier in the army of God will require sacrifices. God is good and when we turn wholeheartedly to Him He will provide all we need. Your spirit knows when you are on the right path, listen to it and don't be afraid that you might lose something precious in this life. Enjoy what you have but don't hold on to things as something you could never live without. When your attention is on God you will have eyes to see and ears to hear what is, and is not, important. Soldiers have duties to perform, find your position and take your place in the army of God. The battle has been won and the enemy is defeated to all who endure and willingly obey the
