Healing Scripture

Isaiah 53:4-5

*Surely He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows:
yet we did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with His stripes we are healed.*

Hebrews 12:2

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Jesus choose to go to the cross, He didn't have to, but Jesus always did what pleased the Father. It should take our breath away that God loved us so much that He sent Jesus in the form of a man to paid the debt of sin that we had passed onto all of mankind. Jesus endured the cross despising the shame. Can we even slightly comprehend what a horrible trial that was for the One who had been in glory with the Father and was now contained in a corruptible body that was brutalized beyond recognition. We live in a society that cares all about looks, wealth, talent, and knowledge, and does not want to be inconvenienced in any way. Our world teaches, promotes, and idolizes self. That is completely opposite of what God is about. If we are comfortable in this world we don't know God and His word very well. God has called His believers to be part of the body of Christ. We really have to ask the question, what am I willing to do for God? Am I willing to suffer? Can I go the extra mile for someone I don't even like? Can I humble myself under the mighty hand of God and be more interested in His will than my own comfort. What am I willing to endure for the One who endured all for me? Jesus did it for the joy that was set before Him. That is what the true believer needs to set as their standard. When we love God and we love Jesus for the sacrifice He made for us we really should be willing to do anything to please God. We celebrate the resurrection of our Lord today, but we should also celebrate our own resurrection from the dead. We no longer belong to this world, but we are alive in Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. Hallelujah! Judy Onofri
