Healing Scripture

Psalm 103:1-5

Bless the LORD, O my soul; And all that is within me, bless His holy name! Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits: Who forgives all your iniquities, Who heals all your diseases, Who redeems your life from destruction, Who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies, Who satisfies your mouth with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

Ephesians 5:8

Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them. For you were sometimes darkness, but now are you light in the Lord: walk as children of light.

The believer has been translated from the kingdom of darkness to the kingdom of light. Before salvation each person had a sin nature and no matter how good we appear our goodness is never worthy of God's salvation. The light in us must shine and dispel the darkness. That means we cannot think or act like the world. That is difficult when our world is so appealing to the flesh. Only those who are willing to crucify the flesh daily are going to be able to withstand the temptations that our culture offers. Our flesh is like a spoiled child once we give into it, it tries to rule us. God has called us to be perfect, to walk as Christ did. This is not an easy task if we are complacent about our salvation and we try to fit in with the world. If we truly are going to walk as Jesus did we will suffer and be persecuted. Very few people like to be in the position of standing against the false teachings of the world today. It is our responsibility to carefully compare what we hear with what God's word say. God warns us not to be deceived with vain words. Those are words that are empty, they are words that produce nothing in regard to purity and holiness. This scripture tells us the wrath of God will come upon the children of disobedience. If you are a child of God then you are in the Father's house, be careful you are listening to the wisdom of the Father carefully. You are light, and light and darkness do not mix, that is why so many Christians have no more success in their lives than those who are not Christians. If you try to live in this world and be like the world you are mixing light with darkness. Be warned, you are in grave danger. The light in you has been called to shine brightly for the world to see. Do people see you as someone who represents Christ, or do they see you as someone who is no different than everyone else they know? If you are light then shine like the light God created you to be.
